Donna Schwenk Resumes Column For Allied, Sepulveda Gardens

By DONNA SCHWENK FR 5-4351

Hi there! Let me introduce myself. I'm Donna Schwenk, the new writer of your Allied and Sepulveda Gardens news column.

In order for me to make this column a success, I'll need your help. For instance: Giving a shower or party, taking a trip or having an out-of-town visitor, then give me a buzz. Anything you think would be of interest to the town.

The home of Evelyn Patton, at 5303 Clearsite Ave., was the attractive setting for a baby shower given for Maxine Klett, of 5309 Clearsite Ave. Co-hostesses were Margaret Elliott and June Buford.

Those invited were Lola Marcum, Carol Wright, Gloria Moser, Rhoda Marcum, Barbara Walker, Virginia Jones, Naomi Freas, Lucretia Peterson, Marilyn Koerner, Mirium Wolfe, Kay Reinhardt, Jean Clarke, Betty Gates and Ann Hoyle of Wilmington.

Cake decorated with a stork on each piece was served as the refreshment along with ice cream and coffee.

Game winners were Carol Wright, Virginia Jones, and Kay Reinhardt.

Carolyn Pezoll, of 22709 Gaycrest Ave., was also honored with a baby shower last week. Jeannette Forestal, of 22632 Gaycrest Ave., was hostess, while Catherine Haley, Pat Ashbeck, Betty Shaw, Ruth Gastelum, Martha Hanley, Geraldine Osterberg, Lucy Smith, and yours truly attended as guests.

Those who sent gifts but were not present, included Roberta Parker, Dorothy King, Millie Ulrich, and Melinda Woodman. The lucky winners of prizes were Betty Shaw, Pat Ashbeck, and myself.

A potato chip dip was served to the guests throughout the party, while the main refreshment consisted of a delicious pineapple torte served with coffee or tea.

The next meeting of the Seaside Community Church women's guild will be held at the home of Mary Rosellen, 22605 Draillie Dr., at 8 o'clock on Tuesday, March 8.

Several women from Allied and Sepulveda Gardens belong to a club known as the Side Liners. Last week their club made up of the wives of husbands who fly for the United Airlines, sponsored a luncheon and style show held at the Alondra Park clubhouse. Fashions were from Arnette Dress Shops.

Approximately 70 women attended, with the proceeds going to the welfare fund.

Some hospitalized veterans are in for a treat when they receive the Easter tray favors being made by Brownie Troop 1652 of this area. It seems the Brownies all over the Los Angeles area are working on this project, each having a different theme.

Also on the agenda for Troop 1652 is a visit to the San Diego Zoo sometime in April.

Edna Cooper, of 22645 Gaycrest Ave., was hostess to her canasta club last week.

Guests were Pat Ashbeck, Martha Hanley, Lucy Smith, Ruth Gastelum, Roberta Parker, Jeannette Forestal, Betty Kirst, Jimmie Eisman, Catherine Haley, Geraldine Osterberg, and yours truly.

Martha Hanley came up with the highest score, making her the coveted winner of a lazy Susan set. Refreshments were then served while the gals gabbed about this and that.

Mary Rosellen, of 22605 Draillie Dr., is expecting her mother to arrive from El Paso, Tex., Sunday, March 6. May her trip and visit be very pleasant.

That's all for this week. Remember, please, your news makes my news. By now,

Twelve Workers Collect $44 in Red Cross One-Day Blitz Drive

By SONNIE TOMCHAK FB 5-6662

The Red Cross "Blitz" Drive held on Mar. 2 netted $44.06 in this area, according to Mrs. Willowby Bowman, chairman of the drive. The collection is not yet completed as this drive encompassed only Pacific Coast Hwy., Green Meadows Ave., Highgrove Ave. and part of Newton St. The newer section of the tract has not yet been reached. Workers for the drive were Florence Schenk, Pat Yates, Agnes Rogers, Margaret Darnell, Helen Hackbusch, Janice Lee, Janet Smith, Merla Wilson, Barbara Weaver, Jo Quinn, Delores Struble, and Janet Robinson.

The Willowby Bowmans, of 4526 Pacific Coast Hwy., motored to the mountains last weekend and on their journey stopped at Arrowhead and Big Bear Lake. On the way home they viewed the not yet completed Santa's Village which is a short way from Arrowhead in Sky Forest. They also stopped for a look at Disney Land before returning home.

Mrs. and Mrs. Eugene Davis, of 4726 Green Meadows Ave., spent several days at Big Bear recently. They left Feb. 20 and stayed until Tuesday at the Ambassador Lodge. While there they spent their time skiing and tobogganing.

Mrs. and Mrs. Eugene Dossal, of 4733 Green Meadows Ave., have as a house guest Mrs. Dossal's sister, Miss Mary Ann Zafranovich. Miss Zafranovich is from New York City and is out here visiting her sister until the date of her marriage, Mar. 17. The bridegroom is Bert Rosen, of Philadelphia. The couple will reside in Billings, Mont., after the marriage where the groom will be employed by the Simmons Mattress Co.

Mrs. and Mrs. Blayne Asher, of 4608 Pacific Coast Hwy., announce the birth of a daughter on Feb. 24. Donna Marie was born at Torrance Memorial Hospital and weighed 7 lbs. 8 ozs. The Ashers also have a son, Donald.

A baby shower was held Feb. 27 for Mrs. Shera Grosch at the home of Joyce Kent, of 4733 Highgrove Ave. Mrs. Kent and Mrs. Rosalie Davis acted as co-hostesses for the affair. Guests were Lois Brubaker, Mary Ann Doty, Coleen Little and Kathy Arnold. Mary Johnson and Marie Dossi could not attend but sent gifts. The theme of the party was carried out in pink and white candles and flowers and nut cups shaped as bottles. The guest of honor, one-month-old Jean Ellen, was also present although she took no part in the games or refreshments which were angel food cake with strawberries and whipped cream and coffee.

Mrs. Joyce Sullivan, of 4559 Highgrove Ave., held a Tripoli party last Wednesday. Enjoying the game were Ginny Harney, Mary Bowman, Ann Burns, Delores Struble and Jo Quinn. The hostess served lemonade during the evening and chocolate mousse pie with coffee after the card game.

Mrs. Jean Pope, of 4609 Green Meadows Ave., held a cosmetic party last Thursday evening. Her guests were Joann Doudna, Janet Smith, Marilyn Forstenson, Sonnie Tomchak, Sue Austin, and Ruth McCarthy. After the make up had transformed the girls, they were served hot apple pie a la mode and coffee.
